Dry Creek Valley
Kemp Vineyards

The 2014 Grenache from Kemp Vineyard in Dry Creek puts on display everything we love about Grenache: bright red fresh berries, spice aromas, a medium bodied frame with loads more fruit on the palate and hints of smoke and dust on the finish. Being so young, this wine's personality is a little bit shy initially but give it some air and it really sings! I'm excited to see it develop and mature in the bottle over the next ten years or more (if I can wait that long).

Alcohol 15% by volume
